AutoPlus
EXPERTISE AT EVERY TURN

SAME PEOPLE, MORE POWER TO SERVE YOU

We are excited to announce that our expanding commercial business will now be rebranded as AutoPlus®. Pep Express sales and operations (excluding Puerto Rico) are transitioning to one consolidated AutoPlus® brand. This milestone is a sign of our commitment to serving you under a single dedicated brand, that is entirely focused on world-class customer service, broader inventory availability and faster delivery.

There will be no impact or disruption to service, to you during or after this transition. We are retiring our PepExpress logo and rebranding as AutoPlus® in our communications and on invoicing. Every other aspect will remain business as usual with expanded parts available and faster delivery. You can expect the same commitment to delivering “First Choice, Expert Service” with the same Account Manager you have come to trust. We will never lose sight of our singular focus: to provide you with brand-name parts, fast delivery and expert service.

We recognize that you have many choices for parts and tires in the automotive aftermarket. We remain committed to leveraging our expanding distribution channel to provide you with high quality products and expert customer service. Our business is to make your business a success.

Please contact your Account Manager if you have any questions or suggestion as to how we may better serve your business needs.
